

MEXICO.

Gloomy Prospects—Proposed Loan—The Church-Treasures of the Minister of Finance—Confusion—Charge against Payne—The Governor of San Luis—Mining Laws—Durango—Land Grants in Chihuahua—A Custom-House Officer sent adrift.

A Custom-House Officer sent adrift.

Special Correspondent of The Tribune.

Mexico, Tuesday, April 3, 1851.

MESSRS. EDITORS: I have entertained hopes, though I must confess they have been faint, of being able to give you some more cheering news respecting the state of this Republic, but as yet I do not perceive a glimpse even of anything that indicates any progress on the contrary, a constant backward tendency appears to prevail throughout the whole country. The people are suffering on account of a scarcity of provisions.

The States are taking the revocation of general laws, as these interfere with and prevent the election of their local authorities. The financial condition of the States is constantly becoming worse, and oppressive measures are being taken by the States for the purpose of forcing a revenue; there is also a deficiency in the revenue of the General Government, and they are almost at a standstill.

A sum of seven or eight millions is seriously contemplated, and it is generally supposed the Church will be solicited to make it.

Should they the money, it is probable they will be asked upon to give their property as security to those who may make this loan. There appears to be another remedy for the Government, or the Church; for if the former fails for want of money, the latter must fail also. Therefore I believe the Church will have to come forward in this emergency. I doubt not, however, many excuses and ways will be made, and the Government will be severely pushed before the Church will act.

This loan, I fear, will be of no permanent benefit to the Government unless they in the meantime do more than they have ever done to raise a revenue. Should they obtain $7,000,000, three millions will have to be employed for the conversion of the interior debt [unless, as they have come up to the present, they keep putting off those editors] and the other four millions, with the six seven millions only of revenue expected this year, will be a deficiency in the revenue of the General Government, and they are almost in favor of a standstill.

Cadmus & Co. agt. Polhemus.—A master of a vessel entering a port, and supplies were to be turned over to him, he was to receive a compensation from his employer for selling these, or removing the vessel's real estate given by his father's will, and for not having paid his debts.

Samuel Beattough agt. John T. Nicholson.—A freighted point, when he had a sea-going steamer, to take her out, and the master, and the crew, and the captain, and the pilot, and the engineer, and the officer, and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,

and the steward, and the cook, and the waiter,</b